

So you think you've been on
a cruise before ...
This one is like no other!

From July 17th to July 23rd, 2005,
you are invited to come sail with us
on the tall ship Caledonia.

Beginning and ending in Halifax, this six-day cruise offers an exciting
exploration of the coast of Nova Scotia and includes:

- ✓ Guest lecturers and daily excursions on land.
- ✓ Opportunities to learn navigation, climb the rigging and handle the sails with the crew.
- ✓ Gourmet-style local foods such as cultured blue mussels, Malpeque oysters, crab and trout.
- ✓ The use of sea kayaks, mountain bikes and crewed zodiacs.
- ✓ Hikes and bike rides along the coast.
- ✓ Maritime music, singing and art.
- ✓ Visits to Lunenburg, seal colonies, marine museums and remote islands.

This new expedition cruise vessel (the largest of its kind in North America) sleeps 79 in classic accommodations.

Suite: $3,042

Upper deck: featuring queen bed, porthole, ensuite shower, vanity, toilet

(See other cabin layouts on back of brochure.)

The cruise is designed to explore coastal regions for learning experiences in culture, history and geography.

A 245-foot square-rigged barquentine, the Caledonia boasts finely appointed cabins and entertainment spaces including a library. Built to the highest modern safety standards, it offers Old World charm and the majestic beauty of a tall ship.
